

Between Indigenous and Immigrant: South Asian Migrations in Global History

Keynote Lecture:

Gaiutra Bahadur, Conjure Women and Coolie Women

Thursday, October 26, 2017, 4:30 p.m - 6 p.m. (DSB C126)

Free and Open to the Public

Sana Aiyar, MIT
Anneeth Kaur Hundle, UC-Merced
Sara Shneiderman, UBC
Renisa Mawani, UBC
Marina Martin, University of Frankfurt
Victor V. Ramraj, UVIC
Anne Murphy, UBC
Nilanjana Bhattacharjya, Arizona State
Seema Sohi, Colorado-Boulder

Gajendra Singh, University of Exeter
Samip Mallick, SAADA
Johanna Ogden, Independent Scholar
Andrea Wright, William & Mary
Vivek Bald, MIT
Davina Bhandar, SFU
Bikrum Singh-Gill, Aberystwyth
Neha Vohra, Lafayette College
Riyad Koya, UC-Berkeley

Sponsors at the University of Victoria

Canada Research Chair, Global and Comparative History
Centre for Global Studies
Faculty of Humanities
Asian Canadians on Vancouver Island Project

Co-Sponsors

UBC Center for India and South Asia Research
UBC Asian Canadian and Asian Migration Studies
SFU Institute for Transpacific Cultural Research
UFV South Asian Studies Institute

Due to Limited Space - Friday and Saturday Workshop Registration Required:

<http://globalsouthcolloquium.org/registration>

Friday, October 27, 2017, 9 a.m. – 5 p.m. (Fraser 152 & 142)

Saturday, October 28, 2017, 9 a.m. – 2 p.m. (Fraser 142)

<http://globalsouthcolloquium.org/south-asian-migrations-colloquium/>

Email: southasianmigrationscolloquium@gmail.com