

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

between

<<INSTITUTION>>

and

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE FRASER VALLEY, CANADA

PREAMBLE

Recognising the mutual benefits to be gained through a cooperative program promoting scholarly activities and international understanding, the <<INSTITUTION>> and the University of The Fraser Valley ("UFV") enter into this Memorandum of Understanding (hereinafter referred to as the "MOU") and agree to the following:

1.0 THE PURPOSE OF ACADEMIC CO-OPERATION

<<INSTITUTION>> and UFV agree to enter into an academic partnership. Within the context of global integration the two institutions will cooperate to meet the needs for cultivating international professionals. Societies are increasingly characterized by complexity, diversity and interconnectedness. This requires graduates to be internationally and interculturally competent to live and work effectively. This MOU is intended take full advantage of the education resources at both institutions and provides for the development and expansion of the education markets.

About UFV

The University of the Fraser Valley is a public post-secondary institution fully accredited by the Ministry of Advanced Education and Labour Market Development of the Government of British Columbia <http://www.aved.gov.bc.ca/degree-authorization/welcome.htm>. UFV is also a full member of the Association of Universities and Colleges of Canada, which represents and provides services for all of Canada's publicly recognized universities -- http://www.aucc.ca/index_e.html."

Nestled in the beautiful Fraser Valley just east of Vancouver, UFV has campuses in Abbotsford, Chilliwack, and Mission and regional centres in Hope and Agassiz. UFV is a university with a focus on teaching excellence, enrolling over 10,000 students per year. Most recently UFV was graded with an overall "A" average among Canadian universities in the annual University Report Card developed by Canada's leading national newspaper, The Globe and Mail, in conjunction with The Strategic Counsel and Educational Policy Institute: <http://omega.ufv.ca/Page9630.aspx>

UFV is unique in that it offers traditional university degrees while also providing a wide variety of applied certificate and diploma programs as well as extensive developmental programs such as English as A Second Language and Adult Basic Education. The University is involved in many research projects that directly serve the community as well as discipline-based research. Many UFV programs offer a Co-operative Education (Co-op) option, combining study with supervised, professional, paid, off-campus work experience. Students from over 70 countries have attended UFV making it a diverse institution. UFV's domestic population includes students from many ethnic, religious and national backgrounds. In particular, UFV has developed an emphasis in Indian and South Asian studies based at our Centre for Indo-Canadian Studies -- <http://www.UFV.ca/CICS.htm> .
