

Posting - #2011.184
Canada Research Chair (Tier II)
Health and Human Performance

Located in the heart of the Fraser Valley, the University of the Fraser Valley, with over 16,000 students pursuing more than 100 programs, including two master's degrees, 15 bachelor's degrees, majors, minors and extended minors in more than 30 subject areas, and more than a dozen trades and technology programs, is committed to teaching excellence. UFV is a multi-campus institution and according to the Globe and Mail's annual Canadian University Report was at the top of the list in the small universities category, earning an A grade in most satisfied students, quality of education, and teaching, and an A+ in student-faculty interaction and class size. UFV is also committed to indigenization of the institution.

The University of the Fraser Valley (UFV) invites applications from outstanding candidates for a Canada Research Chair (CRC) Tier 2 position in the area of Health and Human Performance.

The successful applicant will hold a doctoral degree (obtained in the last ten years) and will be an outstanding emerging scholar who has demonstrated innovation and a proven ability to cultivate multidisciplinary, collaborative partnerships in local, national, and international research networks. The candidate must possess an original and independent research program that will attract external funding and hold the potential to achieve international recognition within five to ten years. The ideal candidate will augment the existing strengths within the UFV Health Sciences community in one or more of the following areas: Occupational Health and Performance; Health Education and Health Psychology; the Use and Impact of Technology and Performance; Neuroscience; Aging; Culture, and Ethnicity; Family, Children, and Youth; Environmental Health.

The goals of the CRC program (www.chairs-chaieres.gc.ca) are to promote leading edge research and the training of highly qualified personnel at universities.

Applicants should electronically submit by January 31, 2012, a curriculum vitae, copies of 3 relevant publications, a brief statement of their research interests, and the names and contact information of three potential referees to Employee Services at the University of the Fraser Valley to:
