

Allan Williams

Current Employment

Sessional Instructor, University of the Fraser Valley, since January 2004

- Instruct HSER 192 - Supporting Learner Development
- Examine and encourage an inclusive approach to community & school
- Explore diverse learning styles and multiple intelligence applications
- Promote a person-centered approach to appreciate the capacities of each learner
- Develop constructive relationships with students and colleagues

Contract Faculty, Special Education Teaching Assistant & Community Support Worker Programs, Kwantlen Polytechnic University, since September 1997

- Instruct Person-Centered Practice and Communications skills courses for SETA
- Practicum supervision
- Create and actualize person-centered curriculum and course materials
- Develop constructive relationships with students, colleagues, and site supervisors
- Acting CSW Program Coordinator for 2006 - 2007

Counselor Coordinator, Community Living Society, since 1980

- Manage a licensed residential setting for individuals who have an intellectual disability

Professional

Member: British Columbia College of Teachers

Leadership Award Recipient (2001): Community Living Institute

Education

Certificate: (2001) Conflict Resolution - Justice Institute of British Columbia

MA: (1993) Special Education & Educational Psychology- UBC

Certificate: (1986) Education of the Mentally Handicapped - UBC

BA: (1977) Psychology - University of Lethbridge

Professional Development Interests:

- Person-centered practice
- Learning theory
- Communication Skills and Conflict Resolution