STUDENT EVALUATION: [An example of student evaluation for this course might be:]

Participation	5%
Journal of exercises	20%
Exhibition review	15%
Short essay	20%
Research essay	40%

COURSE CONTENT: [Course content varies by instructor. An example of course content might be:]

Course content depends on region and museums visited and individual's choice of research area. However, lectures and seminars prior to departure attend to the role of exhibitions and museum programmes in relation to:

- institution's mandate and public partnerships
- audience development
- principles of museum display and exhibition design
- evaluations of exhibitions in accordance with curatorial objectives

Field exercises and reviews are specified in the Tour Handbook. For example, for the New York Study Tour, students analyze curatorial objectives and issues of reception and display in relation to a range of museums and special collections. These include: The Metropolitan Museum of Art; Museum of Modern Art; Frick Collection; Solomon, R. Guggenheim Museum; Cloisters Museum; The Pierpont Morgan Library; Whitney Museum of American Art; International Centre of Photography; Brooklyn Museum of Art
