COURSE DESCRIPTIVE TITLE

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION:

What we wear, drape and attach to our bodies is a visible, physical and symbolic signifier of our place in society, history and culture. This course explores questions of fashion as art, as design, as mass culture and as high art. While considering fashion and clothing as cultural phenomena and a means of communication, it explores the production of visual arts and the design of clothes as interconnected creative processes.

Note: Students with FD 340 cannot take AH 340 for further credit.
