Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Describe a number of methods and techniques appropriate to doing research from an Indigenous perspective
- Articulate the ethical aspects of research as related to Indigenous peoples
- Articulate the tensions that exist within Western discourse as Indigenous peoples and academic researchers (and others) seek to re-evaluate traditional knowledge
- Evaluate the historically contentious relationship between research and Indigenous Peoples and how this affects research projects today
- Demonstrate research practices that will contribute to the empowerment of Indigenous Peoples
- Describe the "Power of Place", with meaningful links to "homeland" in Indigenous identities, and ways to incorporate this into how research is done
