LEARNING OBJECTIVES / GOALS / OUTCOMES / LEARNING OUTCOMES:

This course is intended to be taken in the last year of study for the Kinesiology degree. It is expected that the project will demonstrate the knowledge gained in the degree program. Students are expected to work with the concepts and tools from previous courses to create a self-directed project that will give them insight into research design and experimentation. Students will work to deadlines, and will experience some of the real problems and issues involving project management.

METHODS:

Students select a project with a faculty advisor, work on their own, provide progress reports, and consult with appropriate faculty if necessary. At the end of the semester, students submit documentation and do a half-hour presentation demonstrating their work.
