Learning Outcomes:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Apply theories of gender studies to examples;
- Situate performances in historical, theoretical, aesthetic, and cultural contexts;
- Demonstrate self-reflexivity and intellectual curiosity in relation to course material;
- Employ praxis-based methods to answer questions, solve problems, and explore theories of gender;
- Discuss major theoretical works in gender and sexuality studies;
- Describe the relationships between gender and performativity;
- Analyze the representation and embodiment of gender in a range of performances and plays;
- Identify how gender intersects with other social identities and structures;
- Write a research paper, following a process that includes identifying a research question, locating and evaluating source material, and synthesizing multiple sources effectively;
- Apply research methods as relevant to gender and performance (e.g. textual analysis, close reading, archival analysis); and
- Communicate arguments orally and in writing, demonstrating fluency with scholarly voice and conventions.
