Learning Outcomes:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Identify the major periods, authors, works, and composers in the development of musical theatre.
- Describe the relationship between book, music, lyrics, and performance conventions in the contemporary musical.
- Evaluate musicals in terms of their ability to confirm and confront social norms and to represent gender, race, and class.
- Demonstrate an understanding of critical approaches to analyzing a musical.
- Situate musicals in historical, theoretical, aesthetic, and cultural contexts.
- Demonstrate self-reflexivity and intellectual curiosity in relation to course material.
- Employ praxis-based methods to answer questions, solve problems, and explore the performance conventions of musical theatre.
- Write a research paper, following a process that includes identifying a research question, locating and evaluating source material, and synthesizing multiple sources effectively.
- Apply research methods as relevant to musical theatre history (e.g. textual analysis, musical analysis, close reading, archival analysis).
- Communicate arguments orally and in writing, demonstrating fluency with scholarly voice and conventions.
