OFFICIAL COURSE OUTLINE:

This is a cross-listed course. Please refer to BUS 349 for the official course outline.

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION:

This course will explore the principles of successful corporate financial management, and will therefore target various aspects of managing an organization financially. As a result, the focus of the course is theory and application of that theory to three key areas of financial management: capital budgeting; optimal debt levels; and financial management of day to day activities.

Note: This course is offered as BUS 349 and ECON 349. Students may take only one of these for credit.
