Official Course Outline: This is a cross-listed course. Please refer to CMNS 385 for the official course outline.
Calendar Description: In this course you will be introduced to and examine major statements on the nature of rhetoric from the classical period to the 21st century; you will then apply these to contemporary rhetorical events in an effort to understand the paradigms governing language use in current social and linguistic environments. Rhetoric always includes study of the ways language serves as a call to action; in this course, the emphasis will be on the ways language acts – in itself, on the user, and on the discourse community. Note: This course is offered as CMNS 385 and ENGL 385. Students may take only one of these for credit.
Prerequisites (or NONE):		60 university-level credits, including one 200-level CMNS or ENGL course.
