LEARNING OBJECTIVES / GOALS / OUTCOMES / LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Students will build on their knowledge of French grammar provided in French 215 and 216, by applying this foundation to the writing of correct, efficient and complex essays in French. Students will complete preparatory grammar and reading exercises, but the main focus will be on the multiphased writing process. They will produce different types of texts, with emphasis on the informative text, the résumé de texte,(especially as it differs from the Summary in English), the descriptive text and the narrative. Special attention will be given to common pitfalls in second language writing.

METHODS:

Two thirds of the class time will be devoted to the review of advanced grammatical problems and the explicit instruction of good writing strategies. During the other third, students will be divided into small groups during which they will analyze and compare various texts and engage in collaborative writing activities, in order to refine their own writing and self-correcting techniques. Each session will emphasize a different aspect of the writing process. Active participation is imperative.
