COURSE NAME/NUMBER  FACULTY/DEPARTMENT  UFV CREDITS
Introduction to Francophone Literature

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION:
Conducted entirely in French, this course is designed to introduce students to the great writers of the last 150 years in France and Québec. The main literary trends of this momentous era, such as surrealism, existentialism, and theatre of the absurd, will be explored. Students will learn some formal critical analysis methods, and will be required to apply critical-thinking skills to analyse the concepts and ideals that motivated the intellectuals of this period.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:
Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:
- Recognize characteristics belonging to specific literary trends
- Recognize differences of genre and associated stylistic techniques
- Identify rhetorical figures used by authors (metonymy, allegory, metaphor, personification, chiasm, etc.)
- Analyze a poem’s formal structure and meaning
- Analyze texts in relation to the socio-historic context in which they were written
- Use sophisticated and specialized vocabulary and sentence structures.
- Write thorough explicative texts

METHODS: (Guest lecturers, presentations, online instruction, field trips, etc.)
All classroom interaction is in French. The discussion of the readings will focus on genre, structure and themes, the understanding and use of literary figures of style. Working as a group and in pairs, students go over the vocabulary and text appreciation exercises, after particular points have been elucidated. Composition skills are also addressed. Each student is also responsible for an oral presentation on one of the authors being studied, and a selection of their works that are not included in the anthology.
