Guidelines for Use

- Approval of requests for deferred admission will only be granted once. If you are unable to attend in the deferred semester, you will need to re-apply for admission, and will forfeit any paid deposits.
- Approval of your request for deferred admission will depend on the program you've been accepted to.
*Deferrals are not available for all UFV programs.
- Students may not attend another post-secondary institution during the deferral period. Students who do not comply will need to re-apply for admission, and will submit updated transcripts.
- Students cannot be registered or waitlisted in courses if they wish to request a deferral. You must withdraw from courses before submitting this request.
- International Students: Payment of tuition deposit amount shown on the original acceptance letter is required before your request can be considered.

Deadlines for Submission

Requests to defer an offer of admission to the Fall, Winter or Summer admission intake must be submitted by the dates indicated below:

Fall - August 31 Winter - January 2 Summer - April 30

Note: Requests received after the deadlines indicated above will not be reviewed.
