

AS YOU LOOK AHEAD TO FALL 2020 SEMESTER PLANNING:

Check your program progress and requirements using www.ufv.ca/mygradplan/
MyGRADplan provides a summary of completed and remaining program requirements and progress toward graduation. This can be used for degrees, diplomas, and certificate programs.

USING MyGRADplan, STUDENTS ARE ABLE TO:

- Learn the academic requirements for their admitted or intended program
- See how completed and in progress courses apply & identify courses/credits still needed
- View GPA and academic standing
- Create prospective scenarios using the 'What-If' feature
 - (Example: students wishing to switch programs or who are admitted into Qualifying Studies can use the 'What If' feature to run speculative audits for the academic program they wish to complete).

TRY OUT MyGRADplan TODAY:

1. Log into myUFV using your usual credentials
2. Click on the 'Campus Life' tab
3. In the MyGRADplan box, select click "here" link
4. Read through a 'how to' for this software
5. Click "Access your personal MyGRADplan here"

MyGradplan is neither an official academic transcript nor an official notification of completion of degree requirements. The official graduation requirements are listed in the online Academic Calendar (www.ufv.ca/calendar/current/). If there is any discrepancy between MyGRADplan and the official UFV Calendar the Calendar takes precedence. If you notice any discrepancies or problems with the MyGRADplan service, please notify the Office of the Registrar www.ufv.ca/mygradplan/contact-form/
