

Kinnections

a mentoring program for youth in continuing care

Interested in making a difference in a young person's life? Become a Kinnections volunteer.

There are lots of young people transitioning out of foster care who need a supportive, long-term mentor to help guide them – or just someone to talk to. If you are willing to share your time and life experience, and have an open mind and the capacity to be patient and understanding, we want to hear from you. Please contact an agency in your area (see below) for more information.

Looking for a mentor to help guide you through the transition from foster care? Kinnections can help.

The transition to adulthood can be a challenge for anyone. If you are between 15 and 19 years of age and in continuing care, Kinnections can help you identify someone who has been involved in your life that may be in a position to act as your mentor. Where this is not possible, Kinnections can connect you with a supportive volunteer mentor who can help guide you – or just be there if you need someone to talk to. For more information about Kinnections, talk to your guardianship social worker.
