AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of University College of the Fraser Valley

We have audited the statement of financial position of the University College of the Fraser Valley as at March 31, 2008, and the statements of operations and net assets, revenue, expenditure, changes in net assets and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the University College's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the University College as at March 31, 2008 and the results of its operations, changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Notes to Financial Statements

Year ended March 31, 2008

General:

University College of the Fraser Valley is a post-secondary educational institution funded by the provincial government and is incorporated under the College and Institutes Act of British Columbia. The University College is exempt from income tax under the Income Tax Act.

1. Significant accounting policies:

(a) Basis of presentation:

The financial statements of the University College have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles established by the British Columbia Ministry of Advanced Education for Colleges operating in the Province and conform in all material respects with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

(b) Fund accounting:

The University College follows fund accounting practices. Available resources and their related expenditures are recorded in separate funds in accordance with determinations made by the Board and limitations and restrictions imposed by sources outside the University College.

Funds consist of:

Operating - revenue and expenditures relating to general operations.

Capital - investment in capital assets as well as related financing activities.

Ancillary Services - revenue and expenditures relating to the bookstore, University Station property and to the parking services.

Trust - receipts and disbursements for specific externally restricted purposes such as scholarships and bursaries.

(c) Revenue recognition:

The University College follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions which include donations and government grants.

Under the College and Institutes Act and regulations thereto, the University College is funded by the Province of British Columbia in accordance with budget arrangements established by the Ministry of Advanced Education. Operating grants are recorded as revenue in the period to which they relate. Grants approved but not received at the end of an accounting period are accrued. Where a portion of the grant relates to a future period, it is deferred as unearned revenue and recognized in the subsequent period that the related expenditures are incurred. These financial statements reflect agreed arrangements approved by the Ministry with respect to the year ended March 31, 2008.

Unrestricted contributions are recognized as revenue when received or receivable if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Deferred contributions represent externally restricted funds received for which the related expenditure has not yet been incurred. These contributions are recognized as revenue in the period in which the related expenditures are incurred.

Contributions received and utilized for the purchase of capital assets are recorded as deferred capital contributions and such amounts are amortized into revenue at a rate corresponding with the amortization rate for the related capital assets.

Restricted investment income, specifically investment income earned by endowment funds, is recognized as revenue in the year in which the related expenses, specifically scholarships, bursaries and related costs, are recognized. Unrestricted investment income is recognized as revenue when earned.

(d) Interfund balances:

Interfund balances are without interest or specific terms of repayment.

(e) Inventories:

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value.

(f) Capital assets:

Purchased buildings, furniture and equipment, and leasehold improvements are recorded at cost and contributed capital assets are recorded at their fair value on the date of contribution. Capital assets are amortized on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of the asset as follows:

Buildings 20-40 years
Furniture and equipment 2-5 years
Library books 10 years
Site improvements 10 years
Leasehold improvements Life of the lease

(g) Capital funding:

Capital funding from the Province of BC in the form of prepaid capital advances is recorded by post-secondary institutions as deferred capital contributions and amortized to revenue in order to match the expense generated through amortization of the capital assets acquired with the funds. Any debt obligations are the responsibility of the Province and reported at the Provincial level.

(h) Unearned revenue:

Unearned revenue represents tuition fees and contracted service fees received for specific courses or projects which were not completed at year end.

(i) Salaries and wages:

Operating expenditures relating to vacation pay entitlements are recorded as earned.

(i) Use of estimates:

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenditures during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

2. Change in accounting policy:

(a) Effective April 1, 2007, the University College adopted the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants (CICA) Handbook Section 3855, Financial Instruments – Recognition and Measurement and CICA Handbook Section 3861, Financial Instruments – Disclosure and Presentation. These new Handbook sections provide comprehensive requirements for the recognition and measurement of financial instruments and related disclosures.

Under these new standards, all financial instruments are classified into one of the following five categories: held for trading, held-to-maturity, loans and receivables, available-for-sale financial assets or other financial liabilities. All financial instruments, including derivatives, are included on the statement of financial position and are initially measured at fair market value. Subsequent measurement and recognition of changes in fair value of financial instruments depends on their initial classification. Held for trading financial investments are measured at fair value and all gains and losses are included in the statement of operations in the period they arise. Available-for-sale financial instruments are measured at fair value with revaluation gains and losses included in the net asset balance until the asset is removed from the statement of financial position. Loans and receivables, investments held-to-maturity and other financial liabilities are measured at amortized cost.

The standards require derivate instruments to be recorded as either assets or liabilities measured at their fair value unless exempted from derivative treatment as normal purchase and sale. Certain derivatives embedded in other contracts must also be measured at fair value. All changes in the fair value of derivatives are recognized as earnings unless specific hedge criteria are met, which require that the University College must formally document, designate and assess the effectiveness of transactions that receive hedge accounting.

As a result of the adoption of these standards, the University College has classified cash as held for trading, accounts receivable as loans and receivables and accounts payable and accrued liabilities and long-term loans as other financial liabilities. The University College has not identified any embedded derivatives that are not closely related to the host contract and currently the University College does not have any financial instruments that would qualify for hedge accounting.

There was no impact on the financial statements on adopting these standards at April 1, 2007.

(b) Future accounting changes:

Effective April 1, 2008, the University College will be required to adopt CICA Section 3031 "Inventories". This Section prescribes the measurement of inventory at the lower of cost and net realizable value. The cost of inventories shall comprise all costs of purchase, costs of conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. In addition, previous inventory write downs must be reversed if economic circumstances have changed to support an increased inventory value. This Section applies to financial statements for fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2008. The University College plans to adopt this Section for its fiscal year beginning April 1, 2008. The University College has evaluated the impact of this standard and it will not have a material effect on the University College's financial statements.

3. Financial statement presentation:

These financial statements reflect the financial position, operations and cash flows of the University College.

Financial information relating to the University College of the Fraser Valley Foundation (the "Foundation") is presented in Note 15. The Foundation is incorporated under the Society Act of B.C. and is a registered charity under the Income Tax Act. The Foundation is dependant on the University College for management and administration services. According to the Foundation's bylaws all resources of the Foundation must be provided for the benefit of the University College and its students, and the Foundation has certain Directors in common with the University College. The financial position, results of operations and cash flows of the Foundation are not consolidated with those of the University College.

8. Internally restricted net assets:

Internally restricted net assets committed for specific purposes include research start-up, curriculum development, commitments for the completion of special projects/programs, and capital purchases.

9. Scholarship and bursaries trust fund:

In October, 1984, an endowment fund in the name of the University College was established with the Vancouver Foundation. Capital of this endowment fund ($160,000 cost as at March 31, 2008) is held by the Vancouver Foundation and its use is restricted. Income earned by the fund is paid semi-annually to the University College.

The fund balance is made up of various endowments as well as funds yet to be awarded for bursaries and scholarships. The disbursement of these funds is restricted to the criteria set out in each of the endowment, bursary or scholarship awards.

10. Pension plans:

The University College and its employees contribute to the College Pension Plan and Municipal Pension Plan, jointly trusteed pension plans. The boards of trustees for these plans represent plan members and employers and are responsible for the management of the pension plan including investment of the assets and administration of benefits. The pension plans are multi-employer contributory pension plans. Basic pension benefits provided are defined. The College Pension Plan has about 11,245 active members from college senior administration and instructional staff and approximately 3,500 retired members. The Municipal Pension Plan has about 145,000 active members, with approximately 5,000 from colleges.

Every three years an actuarial valuation is performed to assess the financial position of the plan and the adequacy of the plan funding. The most recent valuation for the College Pension Plan as at August 31, 2006 indicated an unfunded liability of $54 million for basic pension benefits. The next valuation will be as at August 31, 2009 with results available in 2010. The most recent valuation for the Municipal Pension Plan as at December 31, 2006 indicated a surplus of $438 million for basic pension benefits. The next valuation will be as at December 31, 2009 with results available in 2010. The actuary does not attribute portions of the unfunded liability to individual employers. The University College of the Fraser Valley paid $970,825 for employer contributions to the Municipal plan and $2,814,964 to the College plan in fiscal 2008.
