

Year	Funding organization	Funding	Project description
2007	LEEF Govt of BC Regional Innovation Chair	$ 2,250,000.00	Established in 2007, the Chair is focused on developing research business relationships between Canada and India. 1.25 million was raised through community fundraising. Matching funds from Govt. of BC
2007	National Heritage Site “Cultural Recovery Program” Canadian Heritage	$ 35,000.00	National Historic Site Gur Sikh Temple Cultural Recovery Program funding by Canadian Heritage to develop historic site programming
2008	Ministry of Children and Family Development	$ 100,000.00	Research on identifying presenting problems of Indo Canadian families in the Fraser Valley as related to services for family conflicts.
2007/09	SSHRC ASU: Indo Canadian History Projects	$ 25,000.00	Historical research conducted on the Right to Vote (1907-1947) and official records of legal discriminatory laws by Canadian governments,
2008	BC 150 Heritage – Udaari: The Pioneer Story	$ 10,000.00	Pioneer interviews of early settlers and the development of an Udaari exhibit
2008	International Development Fund	$ 4,500.00	Development of a Diaspora Studies Program curriculum at UFV
2008	Scholar Travel Subsidy Grant (STSG)	$ 500.00	Shastri grant to travel to India to develop MoU’s with Indian Universities
2009	International Fund	$ 5,000.00	Grant to develop relationships with Indian Universities in the development of Indo Canadian Studies
2009	BC Child and Youth Health Research Network	$ 4,500.00	Research to document child and youth services that are culturally responsive to Indo Canadian children and youth in the Fraser Valley
2009	City of Abbotsford	$ 10,000.00	Study on safety of Indo Canadian seniors in Abbotsford for the City of Abbotsford to develop services
2010/11	Institutional Research Collaboration Dev. (IRCDG)	$ 6,000.00	Student mobility project on: Janta Colony Demonstration Garden for improved Food Security and Nutrition in Chandigarh, India
2010/13	Canadian Heritage	$ 64,000.00	Development of the Sikh Heritage Museum at the National Historic Site Gur Sikh temple, Abbotsford, BC.
2012/15	BC Ministry of Health	$ 50,000.00	Family Health and Development South Asian Diaspora Fund established for student mobility and research at University of Mumbai
2012/13	Shastri Indo Canadian Institute PDIG	$ 7,000.00	Student mobility project to collect GPS coordinates of households living in socio-economically depressed areas of Chandigarh
2012/13	BCHDP Irvin K.Barber	$ 7,500.00	Online history: A Century of Struggle and Triumph; Experiencing Indo Canadian Pioneering History in British Columbia at Sikh Heritage Museum
2013	Shastri Indo Canadian Institute	$ 10,200.00	A study of community colleges in BC to inform India’s National Education Policy
2013	Multiculturalism BC	$ 2,500.00	The Turban in Canada: History in the Making - exhibit at the Sikh Heritage Museum
2013	Internationalization Fund	$ 3,000.00	Train the trainer project at SD College in India to assist with the development of community college model design.

2014	Royal BC Museum	$ 8,870.00	Research Project: Sawmill industry interviews on Vancouver Island.
2015	Damesh Punjabi School	$ 2,000.00	Curriculum evaluation of the Punjabi Studies Program K-12.
2015	Veteran's Affairs	$ 2,500.00	World War 1 exhibit at the Sikh Heritage Museum – Canadian Sikhs in WW1: The Forgotten Story
2015	Visiting Scholar Fund	$ 3,500.00	Funding from International to host Dr. Nilufer Bharucha from University of Mumbai for lectures and classroom visits.
2016/17	Canadian Heritage Canada 150 2016/17	$ 72,000.00	The SASI curated and installed an exhibit focusing on the Indo Canadian struggle to regain the right to vote between 1907 and 1947.  Further research was conducted for the commemorative panels in French/English/Punjabi that record key milestones in Indo Canadian history over the past 100 years and attached to the outside perimeter fence at the Sikh Heritage Museum.
2015	Royal BC Museum	$ 7,800.00
2017	BC Museums Association Canada 150 Celebrating B.C. Communities and their contributions to Canada	$ 68,000.00	Purchase and Installation of 37 signs at the Sikh Heritage Museum in Abbotsford. Together they create a historical timeline of Sikhs living in Canada. The 100 plus years' experiences of women, men and children are filled with stories of perseverance in the face of many challenges. This timeline offers a brief glimpse into those resilient experiences.
2017	SSHRC Insight Grant	$ 18,268.00	This project included a two-day outreach event at UFV and a one-day event at UBC aimed to work towards the creation of infrastructure/framework for archival materials and resources to enrich the intellectual, social, cultural, and artistic development of the Canadian historical record. Scholars and experts participated in the activity.
2017	Shastri Membership Dev	$ 500.00	SASI had meetings on developing relationships with other South Asian Studies related organizations in BC
2018	BC Arts Council Professional Project Assistance: Museums and Visual Arts Organization.	$ 5,000.00	The design and execution of the exhibit 'Desis in the Diaspora' was made possible with the BC Arts Funding. The exhibit was on display at the Sikh Heritage Museum in Abbotsford in 2018-2019.

2018	Canadian Museums Association of Canada, Dr. Shirley L. Thomson Young Curators Award	$ 15,000.00	This award provided an opportunity for high quality , enhanced learning experiences in relation to the SASU curated exhibit “Desis in the Diaspora” which launched in the spring of 2018.
2019	South Asian Studies Institute Fellowship Program		Yvon Dandurand, Dr. Amanda McCormick, Dr. Martha Dow, Dr. Satwinder Kaur Bains, developed a consultation with agencies, individuals and groups concerned with community safety. The goal of this fellowship was to develop a deeper understanding of the issues as they undertake innovative and targeted approaches to prevent gang related violence. The report provided a focused approach to understanding violence prevention strategies aimed at South Asian Canadian youth that have been implemented in the Abbotsford region. The Report is available for download: Developing Strategies on Violence Prevention and Community Safety in Abbotsford.
2019	Hari Sharma Foundation	$ 10,000.00	With the Hari Sharma funds, the SASI continued its interview collections of South Asian settlers across the province of BC. Thirty more interviews were added to the collection. The added importance of accessibility and access to the stories online will allow elders’ stories to be shared with community and passed down as a family legacy for their children, grandchildren and great-grand children.
2019	Shastri Indo Canadian Institute : Shastri Program Development Grant	$ 300,000.00	SASI Director Satwinder Bains and Vice-Chancellor of Panjabi University, Dr. B.S. Ghuman developed two workshops (Canada and India) for stakeholders including policy makers in both Canada and India, academic administrators, civil society, researchers, managers of higher education, students, media, to prepare a policy brief for the Canadian and Indian policy makers.
2020	BC Museums Association – Family Day	$ 1,000.00	The SASI organised a day of activities to celebrate Family Day at the Abbotsford Rotary Stadium.
2020	BC Historical Federation	$ 4,000.00	Research based on the interviews of four South Asian women from the Fraser Valley who were separated from their partners for a number of years before reuniting with them in Canada, sought to interrupt that flow of time to re-inscribe the untold story into the images so that the story is complete.
2020	UFV Workstudy Grant, 2 positions		The SASI hired two Research Assistant to assist in creating digital databases for SASI’s research portal that includes 1. South Asian Canadian Youth Violence Abbotsford News 2000-2020 Articles and news responses. 2. Historical archive from the Punjabi Legacy Project – 52 interviews 200 + photographs 3. Online mapping of Historic Sites of British Columbia South Asian Canadian Significance

2020	Minister of Public safety, Crime Reduction Research Program	$ 97,000.00	Research into, and publication of report on Crime Prevention Through Sports .
2020-2021	South Asian Studies Institute Fellowship Program		The SASI, with the financial support of the Crime Reduction Research Program, B.C. Ministry of Public Safety and Solicitor General, undertook an assessment of sports-based crime and violence prevention programs in the province of BC. The one-year project improved the understanding of the impact of sports-based crime prevention programs on youth crime and gang recruitment. The project, led to the development of a training curriculum and training tools for coaches, leaders, and facilitators involved in creating and delivering effective sports-based crime prevention programs. The report is available for download.  Read more...
2020	Province of BC Ministry of Art, Culture and Sport	$ 1,140,000.00	The Province provided $1.14 million to the Abbotsford Community Foundation to create and deliver a multi-faceted Punjabi Canadian Legacy Project in collaboration with the South Asian Studies Institute (SASI) of the University of the Fraser Valley, the Royal BC Museum (RCBM). The project included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Digitization of South Asian Canadian collections, including artefacts, photos, texts, materials, oral histories and other resources for the online South Asian Canadian Digital Archive;</li> <li>• Creation of a traveling exhibition on South Asian Canadian history;</li> <li>• Documentation and marking of historic sites that are of importance to South Asian Canadians and B.C. communities;</li> <li>• Development of learning resources for South Asian Canadian relevant social studies curriculum for schools in B.C.;</li> <li>• Research and development of an online comprehensive B.C. Labour Movements Social Histories Research Project;</li> <li>• Production of a public history book – A Social History of South Asians in British Columbia.</li> </ul>
2020	Heritage BC - Heritage Legacy Fund	$ 1,200.00	The Statement of Significance objectives were to identify the physical and non-physical heritage and historic cultural assets of the National Historic Site Gur Sikh Temple (NHSGST) and the Sikh Heritage Museum (SHM) located in Abbotsford BC. These assets include the contributions of indigenous, Japanese, Chinese and Mennonite communities, early settlers of South Asian decent, and to assist in articulating the importance of these assets to the local community, our neighborhoods, the city as a whole and to the Province of BC and Canada.
2020	Vancouver Heritage Foundation Joseph Wosk Grant	$ 2,000.00	The SASI received the Vancouver Heritage Foundation's Yosef Wosk Publication Grant which assisted in the catalogue publication based on the Vancouver Maritime Museum exhibit Komagata Maru: Challenging Injustice . The catalogue publication was released April, 2021.

2021	BC Arts Council - Expanded Arts and Culture Resilience Supplement Award	$ 18,000.00	Development of exhibit on The Right To Vote Catalogue. Material and labour, track lighting upgrades and maintenance, Exhibit planning /research report , Exhibit documentary and lesson notes (short film) , Right to Vote exhibit catalogue , Plexi glass replacements (Artefacts) Student researchers
2021	BC Arts Council, supplement	$ 4,000.00	The supplement funding awarded by the BC Arts Council allowed the SASI to start a project with film maker Henna Mann to direct and produce the documentary film Rails, Jails, and Trolleys on the BC South Asian Canadian response to the Farmer's Movement in India.
2021	BC Arts Council COVID supplement	$ 2,000.00	Refurbishment of the Sikh Heritage Museum to pivot online as a resource to cultural historians, archivists and educators.
2021	Accelerate funding student research	$ 2,500.00	The primary objective of the research project is to identify and analyze best practices for marketing, communications, and outreach within the GLAM (Galleries, Libraries, Archives, and Museums) sector and develop a communications plan and marketing strategy that not only builds on the existing marketing landscape, but identifies marketing and outreach shortcomings that result from the precarious funding and labour models that many GLAM institutions suffer from.
2021	MITACS Business Strategy	$ 10,000.00	The objective is to focus on the Archives and Museums sector in the areas of marketing, communications, and outreach that would be directly applicable to future work in graphics, marketing and promotions departments, based on lessons learned and strategies employed. This sector has faced one of the most serious challenges during COVID times with lockdown and close to nil in-person visits. The action plan for researching best practices for dealing with these challenges is to identify the current practices of major public/community organizations in the Archives and Museums sector: how have they had to pivot for their business to continue during the pandemic, what has worked for them and what hasn't and what are the lessons for near future. It is estimated that one in eight museums is expected to permanently close due to the pandemic
2021	South Asian Studies Institute - Research fellowship	$ 2,015.00	Dr. Inderjeet Mann wrote a working paper series on the South Asian Canadian Diaspora's response to farmer's protests in India (with a special focus on Punjab farmers). He was the historical and political consultant to Rails, Jails and Trolleys, a documentary on the Indian Farmers Movement . Read more...

2021	Dogwood Heritage Society BC	$ 5,300.00	During the covid pandemic, it was soon realized that the work to make awareness and accessibility to the Historic Site was needed. Many educators from all age groups are in urgent need for resources that address history, inequity, racism and diversity. And so the creation of an online interpretive 'walking' tour on the canadiansikhheritage.ca was created (Magdgil Madhev). Its user options by way of a walking tour guided through narrations of space, heritage, history and diverse voices throughout. This will raise awareness at a national scale, one in which can be used all across the country, connecting the histories of Western Canada to Eastern Canada through the story of the Gur Sikh Temple.
2021	PARC Visiting Scholar	$ 6,000.00	History consultant for Rails Jails and Trolleys to document the Farmers Movement protests in INida
2021	Ministry of Multiculturalism	$ 13,000.00	The SASI received funding from the Anti Racism Initiatives Engagement Branch of the Province of BC to facilitate a workshop looking at the nature of disaggregated data collection within the University sector. The report and findings from the workshop helped the Province of BC developing anti-racism data legislation which has been mandated by Premier John Horgan and directed through the Parliamentary Secretary for Anti-Racism Initiatives, Rachna Singh. This to forge a pathway or roadmap amongst post-secondary institutions to include race-based data collecting as an open and transparent process. Partner: UFV's Race and Antiracism Network (RAN)
2022/24	Museums Assistance Program, Canadian Heritage.	$ 274,513.00	In 2020 the South Asian Digital Archive ( SACDA ) was formed to document the 120+ years history of history and South Asian Diaspora in Canada. With the Canadian Heritage Grant the archive was increased from 10 to 60 unique multilingual archival collections, within a two-year period. Partner: The University of British Columbia.
2022	Anti-Racism Data Legislation Community Engagement	$ 13,000.00	Anti Racism report etc. are in 2022 folder Antiracism Data Legislation
2022	BC Arts Council Arts Infrastructure	$ 13,741.00	The infrastructure of the Sikh Heritage Museum was upgraded with the installation of I-pad kiosk, wide screen tv, the setup of a Wi-Fi connection and the interior walls were repainted.

2022/25	Toronto Metropolitan University (formerly Ryerson University); Project Inclusive Communities for Older Immigrants	$ 32,790.00	The Inclusive Communities for Older Immigrants (ICOI) partnership is a 7-year multidisciplinary, multi-sector, multi-province project that aims to build sustainable connections to generate knowledge about social isolation and connectedness among older immigrants, support multidirectional knowledge exchange, and improve older immigrants' lives. The (ICOI) partnership brings together 48 academic and 38 community partners in 9 cities in British Columbia, Alberta, Ontario, and Quebec. The South Asian Studies Institute was the lead for the Vancouver area. Two Researchers were hired to interview Mandarin and Punjabi speaking older immigrants. They transcribed the interviews and collected data. Partner: Toronto Metropolitan University.
2022	Royal BC Museum, South Asian Communities	$ 3,500.00	Intercultural Histories of BC assisted in developing four workshops to build an intercultural alliance for arts and culture in BC. Targeted audience was senior management in Arts and Cultural organizations across BC that were interested in the developing a more robust response to history through an intercultural lens.
2023	BC Arts Council Project Museum Assistance	$ 15,000.00	The BC Arts Council's Project Assistance: Museums and Indigenous Cultural Centres grant supports the development and creation of artistic or cultural history programming. With this funding, the SASI was able to hire graphic designer Faria Firoz for the Sikh Heritage Museum exhibition Marriages &amp; Migration: A Transnational Story of BC.
2023	City of Abbotsford Komagata Maru exhibit	$ 10,000.00	The city of Abbotsford supported the research related to the role of Abbotsford in the role of the legal challenge that the passengers of the Komagata Maru faced in June 1914. The city unveiled permanent exhibits at the Gur Sikh Temple on July 22, 2023. And announced the double naming of a portion of the South Fraser Wayas Komagata Maru way to commemorate the spirit of the activism in 1914. Photos of the commemoration.
2023	SSHRC Explore grant 2023	$ 6,986.00	With the funds a Research Assistant was hired to conduct research on the background of South Asian Canadian Muslims in BC; literature review, finding archival documents, images and backgrounds of early settlers, and migration history. This background helped develop the framework for the online exhibit.

2023	UBC BC History Digitalization 2023	$ 15,000.00	The funds were used to digitize, preserve, and provide open access to Dr. Norman Buchignani and Dr. Doreen Indra fonds in the South Asian Canadian Digital Archive . The fonds consists of 2.5 linear feet of archival materials of the earliest key research work and primary sources related to social histories of South Asian Canadians. The materials were created and collected by both Dr. Buchignani and Dr. Indra and cover the period from 1898-1984. The fonds includes diverse materials including handwritten research notes, index and reference cards, correspondence, interviews, ephemera, commemorative publications, microfilms, photographic negatives, government documents, magazine and newspaper articles, reports, and academic dissertations
2023	Young Canada Works	$ 8,120.00	With the Young Canada Works grant a Research Assistant and Digitization Assistant, Faria Firoz, was hired to work on the digitization of the Chandra Bodalia fond for the South Asian Canadian Digital Archive (SACDA) . Faria also created the design for the exhibit Marriages &amp; Migration a Transnational Story of BC which was on display in the Sikh Heritage Museum in Abbotsford from July 2023-November 2024.
2023	South Asian Studies Institute's Fellowship Endowment	$ 6,295.00	Dr. Sarah Beaulieu , conflict anthropologist at UFV undertook the research to follow the journeys of Abdul Aleem, Fidah and Razia Haque, Munawar Sabir and Mohinder Singh, as each of their families depart from India in search of a better life. A set of interviews revealed the long and arduous journeys of the families to the Fraser Valley. The Community Health and Social Innovation Hub (CHASI) and the South Asian Studies Institute jointly funded the Fellowship .
2023	UFV Work Study grant	$ 2,690.00	Hired an RA for SACDA as a Catalogue and Digitization Assistant (Anshull)
2024	SSHRC Explore Grant	$ 6,978.00	The project collaborated with a diverse group of South Asian Canadian Muslim individuals and community organizations across the province. Through this engagement, we conducted and archived 13 in-depth oral history interviews. Grounded in anti-colonial, anti-racist, anti-Islamophobic, and reparative frameworks, our methodological approach centered oral history as both a research tool and a means of redress — allowing us to document and preserve the lived experiences, memories, and cultural knowledge of historically marginalized communities in Canada. Supported by the SSHRC Institutional Grant, two Research Assistants were hired.
2024	UBC BC History Digitalization - Dr. Gurdev Singh Gill fonds	$ 5,000.00	The funding allowed the SASI to hire two Research Assistants to work on the digitizing, preserving and providing access to the Dr. Gurdev Singh Gill fonds in the South Asian Canadian Digital Archive (SACDA) .

2024	UFV The Winds of Change Project - UFV 50 year	$ 4,000.00	Building an inclusive online archive focussed on the role of the University of the Fraser Valley (UFV) in building communities with under-represented racialized communities (IBPOC) in the region that UFV serves. Partner: UFV 50 year - Department of Community Engagement
2024 v	UFV Workstudy Grant 1 120 hours	$ 2,780.00	With the funds from the Hari Sharma Foundation the SASI hired a Research Assistant to design a website for the publication of the research of South Asian Muslims in BC.
2024 v	UFV Workstudy Grant 2 120 hours	$ 2,780.00	The funds allowed the SASI to hire a Research Assistant to create a webpage for the online exhibit Marriages &amp; Migration a Transnational Story of BC . This reflects the physical exhibit which was on display from July 2023 to November 2024 at the Sikh Heritage Museum on Abbotsford, BC.
2024	City of Abbotsford Culture City	$ 4,000.00	The SASI offered a public, free, musical performance Mehfil to celebrate South Asian folk music and poetry from the Panjab region in India. The event, which took place on September 19, 2024, also marked the finishing of the recording of songs and poetry of 10 BC based South Asian artists in 2024, ranging from children's play songs and Sufi poetry to marriage rituals and traditional folk stories. Partners: KPU Civic Podcast Studio, UFV CIVL Radio, and Vancouver Public Library. Link to event Link to recordings
2024	Council on Library and Information Resources (CLIR)	$ 423,645.64	With the funds the SASI started a two-year project to digitize, preserve, and provide open access to 20,000 selected photographs from the legendary South Asian Canadian photojournalist Chandra Bodalia's collection . The collection can be accessed through the South Asian Digital Archive (SACDA) . This was a partnership with Poetic Justice Foundation, Sikh Heritage Museum, UFV Dep. of International Studies, UFV Library, BC Archives, Royal BC Museum and The Reach.
2024	BC Arts Council Arts Impact Grant	$ 30,000.00	An online exhibit (link) and a physical exhibit (2025–2026 at the Sikh Heritage Museum in Abbotsford) was created, featuring a selection from the 1,200 digitized, described, and curated photographs from Chandra Bodalia's collection , and the history of BC's Gurdwaras . Partners: Sikh Heritage Museum.

2024	Dr. Hari Sharma Fund	$ 3,000.00	A website was developed to publish the ongoing research of the history of South Asian Muslims in BC. Partners: Hari Sharma, the South Asian Studies Institute's Endowment Fund, and two Research Assistants hired through UFV's SSHRC grant. Link to the South Asian Muslims in BC website will be posted soon.
2024	South Asian Studies Institute Fellowship Endowment	$ 6,500.00	Scholar Anushay Malik conducted research into the histories of South Asian Muslims in BC; Building a historical timeline; supporting the development phase of the website, supporting oral interviews of Muslim community members, providing training to RA's, analysis and content of oral interviews for thematic presentation on the website , implement in links with other Muslims in Canada projects, archival professionals, and community historians. Link to the South Asian Muslims in BC website will be posted soon.
2024	Young Canada Works	$ 9,727.00	Two Research Assistants were hired to digitize and write the metadata for selected photographs of the legendary South Asian Canadian photojournalist Chandra Bodalia .
2024	UBC - Partnership	$ 13,500.00	The SACDA Digital Asset Archivist trained, supervised, and mentored two students from the UBC School of Information's Master of Archival Studies or Dual Master of Archival Studies and Library and Information Studies programs, as part of the FOCAS project. The FOCAS project was funded by the Mellon Foundation's Public Knowledge Program.
2025-2026	UBC BC History Digitalization	$ 14,961.36	Two Research Assistants were hired to digitize and write the metadata for selected photographs of the legendary South Asian Canadian photojournalist Chandra Bodalia .
2025	City of Abbotsford - Cultural City	$ 6,900.00	With the funds received from Culture City Abbotsford, the SASI organised an evening of South Asian Folk and Sufi Music, featuring the renowned singer Mr. Maghar Ali Khan on April 5th, 2025 . The funds provided for a workstudy position that assisted with the promotion and coordination of the event. Partners: Culture City Abbotsford, Maghar Ali, and Virsa Foundation Abbotsford. Photos of the event

2025	Young Canada Works	$ 8,509.00	Hire of a Museum Assistant to design, deliver, and evaluate new programs focussed on local and comm histories, improving visitor engagement and accessibility, strengthening community connections, creating long-term sustainability/impact for Sikh heritage Museum, enabling quality public programming.
2025	BCHDP	$ 14,961.00	The project aims to digitize, preserve, and provide open access to 10,000 selected photographs from the Chandra Bodalia fonds.
	Total	$ 5,369,876.00

Joint funding

Year
2009	EU Canada Higher Education Diaspora Pgm. (HRDC)	$ 199,683.00
2010	City of Abbotsford Building Connections	$ 434,000.00
2010	Wash with Care: Vancouver Foundation	$ 32,000.00
2011	Canadian Heritage: Sikh Centennial	$ 26,000.00
2011	ICARE Team – Canadian Innovations Grant	$ 20,000.00
2011	Canadian Heritage: Legacy Grant	$ 122,000.00
2013	SSHRC Connection Grant	$ 23,838.00
2014	Canadian Heritage – Anniversaries Grant	$ 5,400.00
2017	CIHR Patient Oriented Research	$ 25,000.00
2019	CIHR 2019 Novel Coronavirus Rapid Research	$ 273,978.00
2020	CIHR COVID-19 Visitor Related Research	$ 274,000.00
2020	CIHR COVID-19 Research	$ 236,000.00
2021	CIHR COVID -19 Research	$ 348,000.00
2021	Accelerate – Student research	$ 6,000.00
	Temporary Farm Workers Research Grant	$ 455,000.00
	South Asian Mothers & COVID-19	$ 319,000.00
2023	Maternal Immunization project (applied $ 670,000.00)	-
	Total	$ 2,799,899.00