PHILOSOPHY

In accordance with the University Act of British Columbia [Section 59(1)], there must be a President of the University. This policy addresses the appointment of an acting President when the President is unavailable to fulfil their duties, or there is a vacancy in the office.

POLICY

1. When the President is absent or unable to fulfil their responsibilities for a period of less than six weeks, the Provost will serve as acting President.
 2. If the Provost is not available, the President or Provost will choose another senior administrator of the University to serve as acting President and inform the Chair of the Board of Governors.
 3. If the President is absent or unable to fulfill their responsibilities for a period exceeding six weeks, the Board of Governors will appoint an acting President.
 4. In cases where a President's term ends and a successor is not yet in place, resigns, or is permanently unable to complete their term, the Board of Governors will appoint an interim President to serve until a full search is completed.
 5. An acting or interim President will consult with the President or Board Chair as applicable for any direction on carrying out their duties during the appointment.
