MEMO

To: APPC
From: Jacqueline Nolte, Dean of Arts, and Alisa Webb, Associate Dean, College of Arts
Date: 03/04/2018
Re: Program Discontinuance: Fashion Design Extended Minor and Minor

Rationale:

At its April 9, 2015 meeting, on the recommendation of the UFV Senate, the UFV Board of Governors approved the discontinuance of the Fashion Design Diploma, the Certificate in Extended Studies: Textiles, and the Certificate in Extended Studies: Marketing. This decision stemmed from the following:

1. An unsatisfactory 2014 program review

From the Dean of Arts' submission to APPC, February 2015: "The central recommendation of the External Review Committee was that the Fashion Design Diploma be discontinued due to diploma programs having become "progressively irrelevant as degree programs tend to offer better preparedness for graduates entering the labour force" (p2). The reviewers noted that students were not acquiring the complement of skills need for successful transition to employment in the fashion industry.

2. A 32% decrease in demand over 6 years, highlighting problems with recruitment
3. A decrease in student retention and graduation over a 6 year period
4. Inadequate alignment with UFV mandate, strategic directions, strategic plans, and ILOs
5. Challenges in meeting FD program goals and learning outcomes

A full overview of the external review and recommendation is available in the February 2015 Senate agenda package.

In 2015, the Dean of Arts elected not to pursue the discontinuation of the Fashion Design Extended Minor and Minor – programs available to our Bachelor of Fine Arts students – as a result of the following:

1. Ongoing discussions about the future of Fashion courses and programs at UFV, including early work on a potential Bachelor of Commerce in Fashion Design
2. A desire to see students currently in the FD extended minor and minor able to complete their programs
3. Uncertainty around the future of FD resources and capital

As such, these programs continue to be advertised in the Academic Calendar, although with a notation that extended minors and minors in Fashion are "no longer offered." This has not, however, been formalized.

Since 2015, efforts to create a new program merging Business and Fashion have not come to fruition. FD capital has been liquidated and the former FD footprint has been converted to space for Theatre. No student is able to enter the extended minor or minor at this time as the required courses are not being offered; students are only able to receive a minor and extended minor in FD based on prior coursework. The former FD faculty are no longer with UFV in their former capacities. The programs, effectively, have been discontinued in all but name.

Transition Plan:

There are not students currently declared as Fashion Design extended minors or minors, so no transition plan is needed.

Instructions for Proposal for Program Discontinuance

Please submit the Proposal for Program Discontinuance along with relevant supportive evidence to the Academic Planning and Priorities Committee Assistant.

Section I Program Information: provide basic information about the program.

Section II Consultation: provide a summary of consultation that has taken place with the relevant department or school, and Faculty or College Council, with supportive evidence (such as Faculty Council minutes).

Section III Rationale: A decision to discontinue a program should not be made solely on quantitative measures, but on a holistic assessment of the program in terms of all the variables, within a process that is broadly consultative and collegial. APPC will assess the proposal according to the following five criteria. (Note that these criteria are not weighted or listed in order of priority.)

The proposal should address as many of the specific aspects listed under each criterion that are relevant. General or contextual information relevant to the assessment of this proposal may be provided as well.

If the credential here presented for discontinuance is being replaced by a new credential, with no impact on the criteria listed in this section, please omit this section (Section III) from your submission.

A. Demand: What is the current demand for the program? Include information about:

- student enrolment, domestic and international;
- graduation/completion rate;
- employment opportunities for graduates;
- whether the program serves an institutional demand (for instance, if program courses are required in another program or if it duplicates a similar program);
- community or regional demand.

B. Capacity: What resources are currently available to deliver the program? Include information, as relevant, about:

- faculty and staff;
- capital equipment;
- facility infrastructure;
- course offerings.

C. Output: What is the program delivering? Consider:

- number of graduates;
- contribution to the university's mandate, strategic directions, strategic plans, Institutional Learning Outcomes;
- meeting the program's own goals, objectives, or outcomes;
- students' engagement and success;
- the opportunities it provides for laddering;
- research capacity and any ongoing research projects.

D. Financial Viability: Provide a full accounting of both direct and indirect program revenue and costs. How efficient is the use of available resources?

E. Reputational Considerations: Will discontinuance of this program affect current commitments? For instance, will it affect partnerships? Have external donors contributed to the program? Has UFV made a firm commitment to an external party to offer the program?

Section IV Transition Plan: A transition plan must be included in the Proposal outlining how the existing students will transition through the existing program or transition to a new credential. When relevant, also include a plan for reallocation of any remaining program resources.

- D. The term of office of an ex-officio member is on-going.

IV. Elections:

- A. Election of members of the Senate will be conducted annually by the registrar.
- B. Elections of members to Senate shall be in accordance with the procedures set out in the attached Appendix B: Procedures for the Conduct of Elections to Senate.
- C. Every two years, at the May meeting, Senate will elect a vice-chair from among its elected faculty members. In the event that the chair is unable to chair a meeting, the vice-chair will serve as chair. Senate may consider a one-year term if the vice-chair member's term on Senate precludes the vice-chair from fulfilling the second year of the term.

V. Attendance and responsibilities:

- A. Regular attendance is expected of all members of the Senate.

- B. An elected or appointed voting member who misses two consecutive regular meetings per year without permission from the chair shall receive written notice. An elected or appointed voting member who misses three consecutive regular meetings per year without prior arrangement with the chair and who has received written notice will be deemed to have resigned from the Senate. In the case where a faculty/staff/student Senator expects to have an extended absence and will miss three or more meetings (e.g. short-term or long-term disability; sabbatical; teaching/class conflict), that member may ask for an excused absence with the intent to return to the senator role when the reason for absence is done.
- C. Senate members are obligated to prepare adequately for meetings and to participate actively in the decision making at Senate meetings.
- D. All members of the Senate are expected to serve on a minimum of two standing committees of the Senate.
- E. Members of Senate, in their function as members of this body, do not act as delegates of the constituencies from which they were drawn; rather, as members, all must serve the interest of the University to the best of their ability.
- F. No member of Senate or Senate standing committee may appoint another person to attend and vote in their place at a Senate or Senate standing committee meeting.
- G. When an ex officio member of Senate or Senate standing committee expects to have an absence of 2 months or longer (e.g. short-term or long-term disability; sabbatical or administrative leave), the person appointed as interim to the ex officio position, is permitted to attend and vote at Senate or Senate standing committee meetings until the incumbent returns to work.
- H. All Senate members will comply with the conflict of interest guidelines and fulfil their roles and responsibilities to the highest standard of conduct, as set out in Appendix C: Conflict of Interest and Code of Conduct.

VI. Meeting schedule:

- A. The Senate will meet on a regular schedule normally once a month from September to June. The university will make every reasonable effort to ensure that members of the Senate are freed from their normal duties to attend Senate meetings.
- B. Extraordinary meetings may be called in the months of July and August with seven days' notice by the chair, upon unanimous determination by a committee comprised of the chair, the vice chair, and provost that an extraordinary meeting is required to deal with an emergency or extremely time sensitive matter(s).
- C. Meetings may be cancelled by the chair upon unanimous determination by a committee comprised of the chair, the vice chair, and provost.
- D. As a rule, agenda items will be submitted to the secretary at least seven days prior to the meeting.

VII. Procedure for meetings:

- A. Senate meetings will be conducted according to Robert's Rules of Order, except as otherwise stated in these bylaws.

- B. Members will receive the agenda, the materials for discussion, and reports in advance of the meeting. Any member of the Senate or constituency of the University may bring an agenda item in writing to the Chair for consideration. Items not received in advance will be placed on the agenda only by a majority vote of all voting members present and voting.
- C. All Senate in camera agendas, including all attachments, minutes, and subsequent discussions will remain confidential unless Senate resolves otherwise.
- D. For ordinary meetings, a quorum is defined as fifty percent (50%) of the voting members of the Senate present at the time of the adoption of the agenda. Normally the chair of any given meeting does not vote and is not counted towards quorum except in the case where the chair's participation is required to meet quorum. Leaves of absence will reduce quorum requirements accordingly. Once quorum is declared it continues. However, the meeting agenda cannot be amended after the start of the meeting unless fifty percent (50%) of the voting members are still present. In the absence of quorum, a fixed date and time to which to adjourn the meeting shall be determined by the chair. Any business conducted at a meeting where there is no quorum present will be considered as unofficial and subject to ratification at the next meeting held where a quorum is present.

For extraordinary meetings, quorum requirements will be nine at all times, with a minimum of five elected members.

- E. Meetings are open to members of the university community, though only members of the Senate will be entitled to vote. The Senate will, when appropriate, invite guests and resource persons to meetings. The chairs of the standing committees of Senate may speak on items presented at Senate from standing committees. Non-voting members of Senate may introduce motions but will not be entitled to vote.
- F. Voting will normally take place with a show of hands. However, upon request of a member of the Senate, a vote will be taken by secret ballot.
- G.
 - a. On votes on formal motions, all voting Senate members are required to vote either in favour or opposed, or abstain from voting. All formal motions shall be adopted by a majority vote of all voting members present, unless required otherwise. In tallying the votes, abstentions do not count towards the in favour votes. If a vote fails as a result of abstentions, then the discussion will reopen and the vote will be called again on the majority of those present and voting (this time excluding abstentions).
 - b. Members should abstain when they have a direct personal interest in the matter that amounts to a real or perceived conflict of interest.
- H. As a rule, all proceedings of the Senate will be open; however, the chair shall have the right to declare a meeting or portion of a meeting "in camera" and close the meeting to the public.
- I. In the event that either the chair or vice-chair of Senate is absent, the Provost shall act as vice-chair of that meeting. In the event of the absence of both the chair and vice-chair of Senate or in the absence of either the chair or vice-chair and the Provost, the vice-chair of the Senate Governance Committee shall act as the vice-chair of that meeting.

- J. Meetings of Senate and its standing committees may be subject to audio recording but only if in compliance with the following provisions:
 - 1. Anyone creating an audio recording of a meeting must identify his or her intentions to do so at the start of the meeting to the chair of the meeting.
 - 2. In-camera portions of the meeting may not be recorded.
 - 3. The meeting may resolve by a majority vote to prohibit recording of an agenda item.
 - 4. Only approved minutes of such meeting shall constitute the official record of such proceedings.
- K. Meetings of Senate and its standing committees may not be video recorded unless specifically approved by a majority resolution at the meeting.
- L. The minutes shall be the official record of Senate. Minutes of public and in-camera meetings shall be a record of decisions made and actions authorized by Senate. Minutes shall generally exclude discussion summaries and verbatim minutes should be avoided.
- M. The name of the movers and seconders shall be recorded in the minutes. The names of those voting for or against any motions shall not be recorded in the minutes. Members who vote against or abstain from any motion may request to have their names recorded in the minutes.
- N. In-camera meetings assume that all members are bound by a duty of confidentiality and all information presented or discussed will be treated with confidentiality and care, except when information is clearly within the public domain.

VIII. Consultation with constituents:

- A. Members of the Senate will make regular reports to constituents on Senate matters.
- B. The registrar will publish the minutes of Senate meetings in a public place.

IX. Standing committees:

- A. Standing committees will operate under terms of reference and in adherence to policies and procedures set by Senate. Other standing committees will be formed as necessary.
- B. The Senate will strike ad hoc committees as necessary. All such committees will include at least one Senate member.
- C. The Senate Governance Committee will recommend to Senate rules for the conduct of business for the other committees of Senate.

X. Amendments to the Bylaws

These bylaws may be amended at any regular meeting of Senate by a two-thirds vote, provided that the amendment has been submitted in writing at the previous regular meeting.

The registrar will, upon a call for nominations, prepare an election register or voters' list, which is an alphabetical list of the names and UFV addresses of the faculty and staff who are entitled to vote at an election.

The election register will be open for inspection at all reasonable hours by all members entitled to vote.

2. Students

The registrar will also keep an alphabetical list of the names of all students, including those who are members of the Student Union Society. This list will be brought up to date at the call for nominations and just before voting begins.

3. Voters for a representative of an area must be members of that area.

4. Only those persons whose names appear in the election registers are entitled to vote at an election.

3.3. Voting

Appendix C: Conflict of Interest and Code of Conduct

A. Conflict of Interest

Conflict of interest may include but is not limited to the following situations:

- the member stands to benefit or be harmed financially
- the member has family or close friends who stand to benefit or be harmed
- the career or reputation of the member could be advanced or retarded

A member is not in conflict of interest merely by virtue of prior knowledge of the issue or the person about whom a decision is being made or because of common professional or social relations with a person affected by the decision.

In general, voting on matters which affect a broad group by a member of that group is not considered a conflict of interest. For example, student members may vote on issues such as grade appeals policies and faculty members may vote on issues such as programs offered by their particular divisions.

B. Code of Conduct

The effective governance of the University is contingent on Senate members fulfilling their roles and responsibilities to the highest standards of conduct and commitment to the following:

1. A Duty of Integrity – to act honestly and in good faith.
2. A Duty of Loyalty – to give his or her loyalty to the university when acting on behalf of the Senate.
3. A Duty of Care – to act in a prudent and diligent manner, keeping himself or herself informed as to the policies, business, and affairs of the university.
4. A Duty of Confidentiality – notwithstanding the need of members to make an informed decision on an issue before the Senate by obtaining input from internal and external communities, members are to ensure that information which is normally considered confidential remains so.
5. A Duty of Skill – to use one's level of knowledge and one's expertise effectively in dealing with the affairs of the university.

- C. Every two years, at the May meeting, Senate will elect a vice-chair from among its elected faculty members. In the event that the chair is unable to chair a meeting, the vice-chair will serve as chair. Senate may consider a one-year term if the vice-chair member's term on Senate precludes the vice-chair from fulfilling the second year of the term.

V. Attendance and responsibilities:

- A. Regular attendance is expected of all members of the Senate.

- B. An elected or appointed voting member who misses two consecutive regular meetings per year without permission ~~from the chair~~ from the chair shall receive written notice ~~from the chair~~. - D. All members of the Senate are expected to serve on a minimum of two standing committees of the Senate.

VI. Meeting schedule:

- A. The Senate will meet on a regular schedule normally once a month from September to June. The university will make every reasonable effort to ensure that members of the Senate are freed from their normal duties to attend Senate meetings.
- B. Extraordinary meetings may be called in the months of July and August with seven days' notice by the chair, upon unanimous determination by a committee comprised of the chair, the vice chair, and provost that an extraordinary meeting is required to deal with an emergency or extremely time sensitive matter(s).

- B. Members will receive the agenda, the materials for discussion, and reports in advance of the meeting. Items not received in advance will be placed on the agenda only by a majority vote of all voting members present and voting.
- C. All Senate in camera agendas, including all attachments, minutes, and subsequent discussions will remain confidential unless Senate resolves otherwise.
- D. For ordinary meetings, a quorum is defined as fifty percent (50%) of the voting members of the Senate present at the time of the adoption of the agenda. Normally the chair of any given meeting does not vote and is not counted towards quorum except in the case where the chair's participation is required to meet quorum. Leaves of absence will reduce quorum requirements accordingly. Once quorum is declared it continues. However, the meeting agenda cannot be amended after the start of the meeting unless fifty percent (50%) of the voting members are still present. In the absence of quorum, a fixed date and time to which to adjourn the meeting shall be determined by the chair. Any business conducted at a meeting where there is no quorum present will be considered as unofficial and subject to ratification at the next meeting held where a quorum is present.

For extraordinary meetings, quorum requirements will be nine at all times, with a minimum of five elected members.

- E. Meetings are open to members of the university community, though only members of the Senate will be entitled to vote. The Senate will, when appropriate, invite guests and resource persons to meetings. The chairs of the standing committees of Senate may speak on items presented at Senate from standing committees. Non-voting members of Senate may introduce motions but will not be entitled to vote.
- F. Voting will normally take place with a show of hands. However, upon request of a member of the Senate, a vote will be taken by secret ballot.
- G.
 - a. On votes on formal motions, all voting Senate members are required to vote either in favour or opposed, or abstain from voting. All formal motions shall be adopted by a majority vote of all voting members present, unless required otherwise. In tallying the votes, abstentions do not count towards the in favour votes. If a vote fails as a result of abstentions, then the discussion will reopen and the vote will be called again on the majority of those present and voting (this time excluding abstentions).
 - b. Members should abstain when they have a direct personal interest in the matter that amounts to a real or perceived conflict of interest.
- H. As a rule, all proceedings of the Senate will be open; however, the chair shall have the right to declare a meeting or portion of a meeting "in camera" and close the meeting to the public.
- I. In the event that either the chair or vice-chair of Senate is absent, the Provost shall act as vice-chair of that meeting. In the event of the absence of both the chair and vice-chair of Senate or in the absence of either the chair or vice-chair and the Provost, the vice-chair of the Senate Governance Committee shall act as the vice-chair of that meeting.

- J. Meetings of Senate and its standing committees may be subject to audio recording but only if in compliance with the following provisions:
 - 1. Anyone creating an audio recording of a meeting must identify his or her intentions to do so at the start of the meeting to the chair of the meeting.
 - 2. In-camera portions of the meeting may not be recorded.
 - 3. The meeting may resolve by a majority vote to prohibit recording of an agenda item.
 - 4. Only approved minutes of such meeting shall constitute the official record of such proceedings.
- K. Meetings of Senate and its standing committees may not be video recorded unless specifically approved by a majority resolution at the meeting.
- L. The minutes shall be the official record of Senate. Minutes of public and in-camera meetings shall be a record of decisions made and actions authorized by Senate. Minutes shall generally exclude discussion summaries and verbatim minutes should be avoided.
- M. The name of the movers and seconders shall be recorded in the minutes. The names of those voting for or against any motions shall not be recorded in the minutes. Members who vote against or abstain from any motion may request to have their names recorded in the minutes.
- N. In-camera meetings assume that all members are bound by a duty of confidentiality and all information presented or discussed will be treated with confidentiality and care, except when information is clearly within the public domain.

- A. Members of the Senate will make regular reports to constituents on Senate matters.
- B. The registrar will publish the minutes of Senate meetings in a public place.

Appendix C: Conflict of Interest and Code of Conduct

A. Conflict of Interest

Conflict of interest may include but is not limited to the following situations:

- the member stands to benefit or be harmed financially
- the member has family or close friends who stand to benefit or be harmed
- the career or reputation of the member could be advanced or retarded

A member is not in conflict of interest merely by virtue of prior knowledge of the issue or the person about whom a decision is being made or because of common professional or social relations with a person affected by the decision.

In general, voting on matters which affect a broad group by a member of that group is not considered a conflict of interest. For example, student members may vote on issues such as grade appeals policies and faculty members may vote on issues such as programs offered by their particular divisions.

B. Code of Conduct

The effective governance of the University is contingent on Senate members fulfilling their roles and responsibilities to the highest standards of conduct and commitment to the following:

1. A Duty of Integrity – to act honestly and in good faith.
2. A Duty of Loyalty – to give his or her loyalty to the university when acting on behalf of the Senate.
3. A Duty of Care – to act in a prudent and diligent manner, keeping himself or herself informed as to the policies, business, and affairs of the university.
4. A Duty of Confidentiality – notwithstanding the need of members to make an informed decision on an issue before the Senate by obtaining input from internal and external communities, members are to ensure that information which is normally considered confidential remains so.
5. A Duty of Skill – to use one's level of knowledge and one's expertise effectively in dealing with the affairs of the university.
