
TLAC MARCH 2019 QUICK FACTS

TLC Update – Maureen Wideman

Welcome to Lorna Andrews, Teaching & Learning Specialist, Indigenization, in the Teaching and Learning Centre. She will be faculty liaison and TLC's rep for building relationships while supporting indigenization and reconciliation efforts at UFV. She encouraged everyone to stop by her office in G110 for a cup of coffee and a chat. Lorna.andrews@ufv.ca

- The Centre for Experiential and Career Education (CECE) is a new department reporting to the AVP Teaching and Learning. Starting April 1st, this new centre will be promoting and supporting educational opportunities and experiences for students in collaboration with academic units, faculty and programs. It will consist of nine people from various areas including co-op, work-integrated learning, experiential education, and co-curricular record.
- Maureen and Nicolle Bourget are currently doing research around designing learning spaces and are now interviewing students and faculty. The results are fascinating and a report will be out soon.
- 17th Symposium on Teaching and Learning: Assessing and Celebrating Teaching and Student Learning will be held at the Harbour Centre & Morris J. Wosk Centre for Dialogue, Vancouver, May 15 – 16, 2019. Maureen encouraged faculty to attend and share some of the great things we are doing at UFV.

PD Day – April 30, 2019 – Gayle Ramsden

UFV Professional Development Day, April 30, 2019. We have a very exciting keynote speaker, Duncan Wardle, former VP of Innovation and Creativity at Disney. Duncan will be facilitating a workshop on creative design thinking for all attendees in the morning and the afternoon will consist of workshops facilitated by UFV faculty and staff. At 3:30 pm we will have a closing reception featuring local beer/wine, great music and door prizes. We will be partnering with the City of Abbotsford and Chilliwack who will be sending staff to take part in the day with us. Registration begins April 2, 2019. <https://ufv.ca/pd-day/>
